CREATIVE CONVERSATIONS

Truth & Beauty

A mediated discussion, followed by questions from the audience, reception after discussion to meet and interact with the artists/scholars.

Thursday, October 20
6:30-8:30 p.m., Art Gallery
Main Building, GCC

Edite Cunha, Writer and Ceramic Artist
Stephen Petegorsky, Photographer
Steve Warshaw, Sculptor
Joanne Hayes, Moderator

Are truth and beauty synonymous? Who gets to define truth and beauty? Are there degrees of truth or beauty? How does truth or beauty play into what an audience seeks, or what an artist makes or presents?

The Creative Conversations Series is designed to encourage dialogue within the community and promote the ongoing communication and connection between Greenfield Community College, local artists, craftspeople, members of the creative economy, and students.

Sponsored by GCC's Humanities Division, Office of Community Education, and President's Office and by the West County Artists Project.

 Free and Open to the Public
